GARFIELD JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA

Pull out, pull out,
On the long trail—
The trail that is always new.
—"The Long Trail," by Rudyard Kipling

Dear Reader:

All of us on the Garfield Gleaner Staff hope you enjoy our efforts as much as we enjoyed creating it. We tried to make it what you would want. Our theme is roads. Please drive on from the beginning to the end on our special "highway."

—The Gleaner Staff

A Message from Mr. Rowe

This has been an important year at Garfield. It represents a change of grades from 7, 8, and 9, to 7 and 8, and a change in the number and residences of students. No longer does Garfield have students from only one area of our city; now Garfield welcomes students from many areas of Berkeley. This year we had more students, more teachers, and more rooms than ever before. A wonderful new science and industrial arts building was constructed, and new courses and other school activities were developed.

The "new look" at Garfield is a "good look." Most of you have had an important part in making Garfield an exceptional school where everyone has the opportunity to make a better person of himself. You are pioneering in a successful venture. Congratulations!

I hope you have a wonderful summer, and that the coming school year is productive for you.

Robert N. Rowe, Principal

President's Message

I would like to express my appreciation, personally and in behalf of the much to be commended administration of Mr. Rowe, Mr. McKinney, Mrs. White and the rest of the Faculty. I say this not simply for what we have learned, but for the warmth and personal interest imparted during the school year.

With their help the Garfield students have proven to themselves and to the community that young people can take new and different circumstances in stride with maturity and understanding.

I urge the graduates and future graduates when they near their life goals to reflect upon the knowledge and wisdom gained at Garfield with pride in the honor and tradition held here.

1. Neither one of them said hello to us this morning!
2. I'd like to know who took my mirror!
3. "Gee, Mr. McKinney we were as quiet as mice!"
4. "I don't know what it represents, ask Mr. Pearl."
5. Sometimes I have the feeling I'm all alone.

6. Mr. Rowe, they are going to set here until the Beatles come to Garfield!
7. Women and children first!
8. "No one here but us chickens!"
9. That was the best joke I've ever heard!
10. No, these are my books for the first two periods only!

11. You mean you got your locker open the first time!
12. "My locker always opens."
13. "Hey, all I forgot was one homework assignment!"
14. Four more periods until lunch and we're starved already.

1. "The next time I come to school, I'm only taking one of you."
2. "Gee, Mrs. Hall, those darn painters are blocking the door to 126 and I can't get in!"
3. You mean I'm the only girl with a 10 speed bike?
4. It's a new dance, called the "Strangle."
5. "We'll run the second stretch over there after we tear down the old Golden Gate and then . . ."

6. I'm going to surprise Mr. Jewett and use the jeweler's saw on this wood!
7. "Gee thanks, Mr. Gruber, I didn't think we sounded so much like the Beatles."
8. "Let's see, Chuck, if we loosen this level, maybe I can get my thumb out!"
9. "As a matter of fact, they're not bad broiled too."
10. Now only 5,328 more pieces and I'll have the biggest jig-saw puzzle in the seventh grade.

11. "Come, come Gwendolyn, not all these books are for history!"
12. Do you think we can both chew gum in Mr. Galbraith's class or shall we play it safe?
13. "Three little maids from school are we . . ."
14. "Well, thanks for the compliment, Mr. Dunkum, but I'm really a teacher, not a student."
15. "This is the 'Washington Post March' not A Hard Day's Night."
